LED Lighting Solutions

Limited Product Warranty

Hudnut Company, Inc (Hudnut) warrants that Hudnut Products shall be free of defects in material and workmanship for three years from date of receipt by the Purchaser. If there is such a defect, Hudnut will repair or replace the Product as appropriate and as determined by Hudnut.

To obtain service under this warranty, the Purchaser must notify Hudnut of the defect before the warranty expiration date(s). A Return of Materials Authorization (RMA) number must be requested from Hudnut and received by the Purchaser. The Hudnut main or distribution office will advise the Purchaser of the nearest service address to which the Purchaser must ship the defective Product at Purchaser expense. The Product should be packed safely, in the original or comparable packaging. Hudnut will pay shipping costs once the Product is repaired or replaced. Shipments received not in compliance with the terms of this warranty will be shipped back to Purchaser, at Purchaser expense.

This warranty applies only to the hardware specified in this document and used normally within its operating specifications. It does not cover hardware modified in any way, subjected to unusual physical, electrical, or environmental stress, per the qualifications stated in the table below, or if used in an incorrectly installed manner, or with the original identification marks altered. This warranty is valid for the original purchase only.

Hudnut neither assumes nor authorizes any person to assume on its behalf any liability in connection with the sale, installation, service or use of its Products. Hudnut shall not be held responsible for special, consequential or punitive damages of any kind arising out of sale, installation, service, or use of their Products. Hudnut does not warrant that Product is suitable for any specific purpose. Iron works, (nuts, bolts, brackets, etc.) are not covered by this warranty.

The Purchaser is entitled to free technical support for any Hudnut Product for one year from its date of purchase. Technical support includes advice concerning installation and operation of Hudnut Products. Services not directly related to Hudnut Products may incur a charge.
